Travel in Brussels with the STIB!

The network includes metro lines, which connect the eastern and western districts of the city. Pre-metro lines (trams in the tunnels) complete the metro service. A great many metro lines also have above ground bus and tram connections. Maps of the network are available free of charge from the information service at the metro stations.

Buying your ticket?

At KIOSK ticket offices in metro stations, at a GO ticket machine, at certain stops and in all stations, at STIB information desks. Brupass 1 day for €9.50 can be used for one day, whenever you want, as often as you want and for any type of transport (metro, tram, bus, train). Good plan: travel as a family with the STIB! Children under 6 travel free.

NAPOLEON'S LAST HEADQUARTERS

Vieux-Genappe

17th June 1815. It was almost dark and raining. Napoleon's troops were exhausted. The Emperor ordered a halt and his aides-de-camp spotted an unoccupied house. It was the Ferme du Caillou. It was to be Napoleon's last HQ. The museum focuses on the events of that night, with eyewitness accounts and anecdotes from civilian and military life, all set in an authentic setting. The museum has been adapted for people with special needs. A fun trail is available for children.
